

Official Form 423 (Abrogated)

Certification About a Financial Management Course

Official Form 423, which was used to document the completion of a required course on personal financial management, was discontinued effective December 1, 2024.

An individual debtor who has completed an instructional course concerning personal financial management must now file the certificate of course completion (often called a Certificate of Debtor Education) issued by the approved provider of that course, if the provider has not notified the court that the debtor has completed the course. See, Rule 1007(b)(7).
